Porject name : Rawah

project idea:

Rawah is a therapeutic travel and emotional healing application designed for individuals who have gone through severe physical illnesses—such as cancer, burns, autoimmune diseases, or chronic conditions—and were emotionally impacted by their medical journey.

The app connects users with specialized rehabilitation trips, mental-health-supported experiences, and certified therapists who guide them toward recovery in a safe, compassionate environment.